STYLE SUMMARY

The Intermediate Core strategy is a fixed income investment management strategy that seeks to provide a total return in excess of the Bloomberg Barclays Intermediate Government/Credit Index. Excess return is achieved primarily through sector rotation and security selection. The strategy seeks to manage risk through issue diversification. Portfolio duration is managed in line with the benchmark. Portfolios – when permitted by client guidelines – will invest in non-benchmark sectors opportunistically.

The Intermediate Fixed Composite includes accounts comprised of intermediate-term fixed income securities with maturities or average lives generally not exceeding ten years and duration similar to the benchmark. The benchmark is the Bloomberg Barclays Intermediate Government/Credit Index. The composite creation date is January 1, 2000. Gross-of-fees returns are presented after trading expenses and before management fees. Net-of-fees returns are presented after the highest applicable management fee applied on a monthly basis. Prior to January 1, 2012, fees were applied on a quarterly basis. The highest applicable management fee is 0.40%. Prior to January 1, 2010, the highest applicable fee was 0.58%. Fees are calculated separately for each portfolio, and therefore, performance may differ from one portfolio to another. The fee schedule is: 0.35% on the first $50 million; 0.25% on the next $50 million; 0.20% on all additional assets.

The Bloomberg Barclays Capital U.S. Government/Credit Intermediate Index is a measurement of the movement of approximately 3,500 bonds from the Bloomberg Barclays Government Bond Index with maturities between 1 and 9.99 years.

When investing in bonds, it is important to note that as interest rates rise, bond prices will fall.
